The bike that changed everything

After 5 consecutive titles in the World Grand Prix Road Racing Series, Honda decided to withdraw and turn toward its primary target: transfer the technology obtained in competition to develop high-performance consumer machines. After a first attempt with a 450cc, Honda released the CB750 Four in January 1969. The initial production forecast of 1,500 units a year became soon a monthly figure and then jumped to 3,000 units/month. By pushing the boundaries of performance, reliability and easy handling in motorcycles, Honda created a new class of Superbikes. The CB1000R is the modern expression of the same spirit that guides Honda engineers since decades.

The Dream CB750 FOUR, which hit the market in July 1969

CB1100 EX "Hedo": a CB fully dressed up for the Custom scene

In 2017, Honda stirred a massive interest from custom fans with this project made in collaboration with Milan-based customizers South Garage. The matt-black tank, blacked-out engine, clutch covers, and wheels provide the overall mood of this dark mixture of café racer and bobber styles. Low-slung clip-on bars, radial master cylinder, and short tail section give it the café racer edge. Touches like miniature LED indicators, new headlight and diamond-patterned leather seat matching the tyre tread give an elegance that keeps vivid the original appeal of the CB1100 EX.

Do you really need a left lever to enjoy riding?

The Dual Clutch Transmission made its worldwide debuts for motorbikes in 2010 with the Honda VFR 1200. Now entering its 3rd generation and downsized to suit mid-displacement bikes, the DCT is completely different from the belt-type transmissions used by most scooters: it is structurally a conventional 6-speed gear ratio transmission, yet electronically controlled when changing speeds. Keep the fun of a manual transmission; enjoy the comfort of an automatic one!

4-1 Exhaust

Where these beautiful curves are coming from?

One of the most distinctive attributes of the CB650R is its swooping four-into-one exhaust system. This beautiful design is a tribute to another iconic Honda: the CB400F also known as the CB 400 Four. Produced between 1975 and 1977, the CB 400 Four caused quite a stir thanks to its café racer look. Producing only 37 bhp (28 kW) at 8,500 rpm and 24 lb-ft (33 N-m) at 7,500 rpm, its four-in-line engine was not meant to take the racetracks by storm. Yet, back in the late 70's, some versions upgraded to 492cc were capable of 13,500 rpm and producing an estimated 60 bhp (45 kW).

From one Rebel to another?

Since 2013, The Bike Shed London is a motorcycle exhibition like no other celebrating the creative culture around the custom bike scene. It is there that Keita Mikura, the Rebel's Project Leader, was inspired to create a new kind of machine for young riders, leaving free space for further customization. In 2017, the Rebel concept became reality and reached another level, thanks to the vision and the craftsmanship of 2 Brits: Dan Gold, a tattoo artist and Russ Brown, a custom bike builder.

Is reliability supposed to be boring?

It's not rare to find CB500 proudly boasting more than 300,000 kms (more than 186,000 miles), but the long-time favourite of the couriers and the driving school is much more than a workhorse. Started in France in 1996, the CB500 Cup spread across Europe quickly and helped young talents such as Sebastien Charpentier or James Toseland to make a name by themselves, on a budget.

DREAMS REALLY DO COME TRUE

Soichiro Honda said,
'We only have one future, and it will be made of our dreams, if we have the courage to challenge convention.'

Honda's philosophy in dreaming of a better world for people catalysed the invention of the ASIMO, HondaJet, NSX and the legendary Africa Twin. Dreams can be powerful, they push you to achieve more, to explore new ideas, new technologies and uncover new ways of solving problems.

It takes independent thinking and audacity to pursue dreams. It also takes passion and innovation to never allow the dream
to die and to shape them into a reality for the modern day world.

The specific details of this brochure do not apply to any particular product supplied or offered for sale. Manufacturers reserve the right to vary specifications, including colours, with or without notice at such times in such manner as deemed appropriate. Major as well as minor changes may be involved. Every effort, however, is made to ensure the accuracy of the particulars contained in this brochure. Consult your Dealer for details regarding the specifications of any featured product. This publication shall not constitute - under any circumstances whatsoever - an offer by the Company to any individual. All sales are made by the Distributor or Dealer subject to and with the benefit of the standard Conditions of Sale and Warranty provided by the Distributor or Dealer, copies of which may be obtained upon request. While efforts are made to ensure specification accuracy, brochures are prepared and printed several months in advance of distribution and consequently cannot always immediately reflect either changes in specification or in some isolated cases the provision of a particular feature. Customers are always advised to discuss specific details with the supplying Dealer, especially if a selection is dependent upon one of the features advertised. Please contact your local dealer for information and specifications. Please note that the fuel consumption figures provided are results obtained by Honda under standardised testing conditions prescribed by WMTC. Tests are conducted on a rolling road using a standard version of the vehicle with only one rider and no additional optional equipment. Actual fuel consumption may vary depending on how you ride, how you maintain your vehicle, weather, road conditions, tyre pressure, installation of accessories, cargo, rider and passenger weight, and other factors. You accept that if you do go ahead and make a purchase or enter into any kind of transaction, whether for payment or not, you did so entirely in reliance on your own skill and judgement and not on that of anyone else.

RIDE WITH STYLE Read the owner's manual thoroughly. Get to know your machine and its capabilities. Concentration assists anticipation. Observe other road users' movements. Brake in plenty of time. Always wear a helmet and quality kit, ride fit and NEVER after drinking alcohol. Good roadcraft and courtesy identify the skilled and stylish rider. Honda endorse the law that all helmet visors must comply with BS 4110. Visors that transmit less than 50% of visible light cannot legally be used on the road.
